

Imagine the possibilities. At Cal State Fullerton, you will quickly discover that this large, dynamic and diverse university — a microcosm of our international community — provides an exceptional learning environment on a very personal level. You can take advantage of close mentoring relationships with outstanding professors who take pride in shaping a successful student experience, whether it's in the classroom, collaborating on a research project, or planning an internship. Our expanded facilities, upgraded classrooms and new technology provide access to a wealth of resources. You will also discover a wide network of support services that help ensure student success and offer a rich and rewarding college experience.

Strong partnerships with our surrounding communities, in both public and private sectors, provide real-life connections for our students to develop essential skills in teamwork, leadership and citizenship. In fact, the majority of our alumni live and work in Southern California. Many have become leaders in business, industry, government, politics, education and the arts. Their contributions to the communities they serve — internationally, as well as locally — are continuing testimony to our success.

Your future is full of infinite possibilities. I am proud to say that our entire university community is committed to providing the support, encouragement and challenging opportunities to make your dreams and goals a reality.

Learning

is preeminent at California State University, Fullerton.

We aspire to combine the best qualities of teaching and research universities where actively engaged students, faculty and staff work in close collaboration to expand knowledge. Our affordable undergraduate and graduate programs provide students the best of current practice, theory and research and integrate professional studies with preparation in the arts and sciences. Through experiences in and out of the classroom, students develop the habit of intellectual inquiry, prepare for challenging professions, strengthen relationships to their communities and contribute productively to society. We are a comprehensive, regional university with a global outlook, located in Orange County, a technologically rich and culturally vibrant area of metropolitan Los Angeles. Our expertise and diversity serve as a distinctive resource and catalyst for partnerships with public and private organizations. We strive to be a center of activity essential to the intellectual, cultural and economical development of our region.
