

Department of Geography & the Environment
Curriculum Map for Undergraduate Student Learning Outcomes

SLO #	120	160	281	300A	332	357	360	481	328	489
SLO1 - Students are able to articulate the definitions of, connections between, and differences among fundamental concepts, models and theories in geography.	Introduced & developed			Developed					Developed
SLO2 - Students are able to identify and explain patterns and processes of human and physical geography including the diversity of the earth's peoples and environments, and the interactions between humanity and the earth's environments.		Introduced & developed			Developed	Developed
SLO3 - Students can apply mapping and geospatial technologies to analyze geographic data and solve geographic problems.			Introduced & Developed					Mastered		Mastered
SLO5 - Students can clearly and effectively communicate geographic knowledge and research in writing, orally, and/or visually.				Introduced & Developed			Developed

For the most up-to-date information, please contact the program.