

Psychology MS Clinical Program
Curriculum Map

Course	1: Legal/Ethical Know the legal and ethical responsibilities related to clinical practice; apply these in actual clinical situations.	2: Diagnosis Master the diagnostic and conceptual framework for mental disorders and related terminology; accurately diagnose actual clinical patients.	3: Theory Apply a variety of dominant theoretical frameworks for describing personality, predicting behavior, treatment planning and guiding clinical interventions.	4: Techniques Employ therapeutic techniques from a variety of theoretical models for intervening with children, adolescents and adults in individual, family and group modalities.	5: Ethnicity Be sensitive to the influence of ethnicity and cultural values on clinical practice; consider cultural and ethnic influences while working with therapy cases.	6: Research/Stats Gain command of research methodology and statistical techniques; employ these methods and techniques in an original master's thesis of one's own design.	7: Practice Complete 280 hours of direct clinical contact during a year-long clinical internship in a professional mental health setting; complete a two-semester Fieldwork sequence.
Clinical Core 501	D				D
Clinical Core 545		D
Clinical Core 547			D		D
Clinical Core 569					D
Therapeutic Methods 548	D	D	D	D
Therapeutic Methods 549			D	D
Therapeutic Methods 550			D	D
Therapeutic Methods 560			D	D	D
Research Class 510						D
Research Class 598						M
Research Class 599						D
Fieldwork 594A & B	M	M	M	M	M		M

D = Developed and Practiced with Feedback; M = Demonstrated at the Mastery Level Appropriate for Graduation

For the most up-to-date information, please contact the program.